Stressless View

Enjoy your time at the home office! Soft cushioning and sublime support help you focus on the task and work more efficiently. Our Home Office chairs have the same functions as a Stressless recliner, offering good lumbar and head support both when you sit upright and when you recline. Stressless View Home office has a tall and slim backrest with a cushion in the headrest for personal adjustment of the support, wheels that make it easy to move around and you can adjust the seat height to find the perfect position. And it doesn't hurt that the chair blends in perfectly with the rest of the interior either. After all: in your own home office you're the boss.
