Sleepzee Graphite Echo 3200

Get ready to welcome restful sleep into your life with the Graphite Echo 3200 mattress. Its sumptuous pillowtop layer is perfect for those who prefer softer support. While a double layer of graphite memory foam allows air and moisture to pass through, preventing overheating and giving you a more comfortable night's sleep.

Added side support maximises your sleeping space with full edge-to-edge support, perfect for nights where you are sharing your sleep space.
